Welcome Note

We are honoured to invite you to celebrate the Glorious Journey of Indian Academy of Forensic Medicine (IAFM) since its inception on 12th May 1972, at Panji, Goa which is completing its 50th Year in 2022. FORENSIC MEDICON 2022 will take place in Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow from 25th February to 27th February 2022.

The Theme for the conference is “Reforms in Criminal Justice System of India: Role of IAFM in policy making & implementation”.

The COVID-19 pandemic has affected many parts of our lives. Since health and safety is paramount at IAFM 2022, the conference will be delivered in a hybrid event format, combining an in-person conference experience with a virtual component.

The conference shall be led by experts and distinguished speakers from different leading institutions across India. Our prospective audience includes Forensic experts, judicial officials, lawyers, police officers, forensic scientists around the country and other healthcare professionals.

This is the time to celebrate the achievements of IAFM and its leaders, whose contribution is immense in this Journey. As you repose your faith in us and given responsibility of organizing 43rd Annual National Conference in the Golden Jubilee Year in 2022 at Lucknow, U.P., it is our moral obligation to make it a memorable event with your participation in this grand event.

Lucknow at a Glance

Lucknow, the capital of Uttar Pradesh was historically known as the Awadh region. Today, it is the administrative headquarters of Lucknow District and Lucknow Division. Fondly known as the 'City of Nawabs' or the 'City of Tehzeeb', it has always been a city filled with varied cultures.

Its beautiful sprawling gardens, polite mannerisms, fine-cuisine, music, and poetry (Shayari), had found a patronage in the Shia Nawabs of the city who loved Persian. Lucknow city has to offer a unique feature to its travelers, which is a perfect combination of its rich traditions and the modern growth of new-mannerisms.

Lucknow's cuisine, also known as Awadhi cuisine has a unique- Nawabi style. The major highlights are biryanis, kebabs and some breads (nahari-kulchas, roomali rotis and warqi parathas). Kebabs actually a specialty, are of various types such as Tunde ke Kebabs, Kakori Kebabs, Shami Kebabs, Galawati Kebabs, Boti Kababs, Patili-ke-Kababs, Seekh Kebabs and Ghutwa Kababs. Lucknow can be called a paradise for food lovers.

Lucknow is extremely popular for Chikan and Lucknavi Zardozi. Both of these are two kinds of stylish and delicate Indian embroideries.

Lucknow boasts of being home to various tourist attractions. Roomi gate, Bada Imambada, Shah Mina Shah, Tare Wali Kothi, Dilkusha, Khursheed Manzil, Satkhanda, Shahi Baoli, Nadan Mahal, Banarsi Bagh, Chattar Manzil are some of well-known attractions for tourists.
